HOAGLAND'S
NEW PATENT SHAFT COUPLING!
HAS PURCHASED THE RIGHT FOR THIS County of the above Patent, and will hereafter use it in the construction of all the Vehicles manufactured at his extensive
Carriage Factory,
Corner of Second and Morrison Streets.
He respectfully refers to the following
CARD.
Having examined the New Patent Shaft Coupling, invented by H. E. Hoagland, we feel pleasure in informing the public that in our opinion it is the safest and best method of connecting shafts or tongues to all vehicles that has ever been used.
It fastens without bolt or screw, and is therefore, easily and readily separated. It rests on Gutta Percha so as to be entirely free from the rattling sound which so often disturbs restless horses. It is easily changed so that the shafts or tongue may be detached in an instant and is convenient, safe and secure.
It is easy to change to this style of coupling any buggy or other vehicle now in use, and with small expense We have come to the conclusion to use this new invention ourselves and recommend its use in all cases. We consider it far superior to the Brewster Patent, heretofore considered the best in use.

ST. LOUIS, July 18.—Hon. E. G. Hawkins, Secretary of New Mexico, and Lieuts. Cooper and Ford, Agents for the Pueblo Indians, arrived here to-day en route to New Mexico.

The gauge throughout the entire Missouri Pacific railroad, for a distance of three hundred miles was changed between the hours of 4 and 8 o'clock P. M. to-day. It is said to be the greatest days work of a similar character ever done.

A tornado swept over a portion of Clay and Lafayette counties on Wednesday, doing immense damage. In Lexington the Catholic church was wholly and the Presbyterian church partially unroofed. A number of private houses lost their roofs and were otherwise damaged. Saw mills on the river were unroofed and chimneys were knocked down. Similar damage was done at Dover in Waverly county. At Richmond in Looey county the storm was very severe. The Court House was unroofed and considerably damaged. The Christian church at Westport was totally demolished. The Methodist church was unroofed and one of its ends blown in. The Shaw House was badly injured. A large number of buildings of all kinds were demolished and scattered about through the city. Dwellings and business houses were demolished, unroofed, etc. The corn and wheat fields, orchards and fences throughout the country were seriously damaged. Houses were torn to pieces. SYRACUSE, July 18.—A bold and successful forgery, perpetrated by Rev. Mr. Mitchell, Methodist clergyman at Chittenango, has been discovered. He forged the name of Robert Stewart, President of the National Bank of Cittenango, to a draft for five thousand dollars payable to the order of Rev. Mr. Greenleaf, another Methodist clergyman, who resembles Mitchell. The latter deceived Carlton, a publisher of New York, into identifying him as Greenleaf at the Fourth National Bank of New York. The money being got he invested it in government securities. The resemblance to Greenleaf led to his detection, when he restored $4,600 and made his escape.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

Gladstone approved the amendment granting half a million pounds for private endowments made previous to 1816, but moved to disagree with the provision for the continuation of the Ulster grants.

Stafford Northcote thought Gladstone's proposal would convert the established church into a voluntary eleemosynary church. He asked as an act of justice and expedience that the glebes should be left.

Roundell Palmer supported the Lords' amendment.

The amendment granting half a million of pounds for private endowments was agreed to and the amendment containing the Ulster grants was rejected by a vote of 345 to 240. The announcement was cheered from the ministerial benches.

Disraeli intimated that it was not necessary for the House to divide on any other amendment except that of postponing the disposal of the surplus funds.

Gladstone moved to disagree and Disraeli supported the Lords' amendment. He thought the government plans not matured, and ought to be left for future consideration.

Bright said the distribution of surplus funds was a difficult matter. The government had made minute inquiry as to the suitable distribution of the income arising from the surplus. He had no interest other than any member of the House contrary to the wishes of the Irish people. Every one acknowledged that the property and money of the Irish church ought to be applied to its benefit, and if this plan was open to the least objection, to leave the question open would only pave the way for future embarrassment. He appealed to the House not to put obstacles in the way of the passage of the bill. The country shared with the government desire to make Ireland an integral part of the Kingdom and make her connection with England closer. The amendment of the Lords' was rejected by 290 against 218. Great cheers greeted the result.

LONDON, July 17.—The bill for the Government purchase of the telegraph lines in the Kingdom was read a second time. Adjourned.

The debate on the amended Irish Church Bill continued in the Commons until a late hour this morning. After the rejection of the amendments proposed by the Peers, Disraeli took the floor and spoke at some length. He regretted the repudiation of the amendments adopted by the Lords. The church was not a question at issue at the late election. He thought the agreement of the Lords to send the bill a second time was an act of magnanimity considering that a majority was unfavorable to the measure. The agreement was only given under an understanding that the Commons would consider the amendments in a conciliatory spirit. He could not understand how the course the Government had taken could be reconsidered with the temptation held out to the House of Lords.

Gladstone replied. He said the promise given to the House of Lords was that the amendments would be respectfully considered. He maintained that the pledge had not been violated. He had conceded much in deference to the Lords. He had more than fulfilled the pledge he had given. [Great cheering]. He was certain that if any harm had been done to the church it was by those who desired the grievous and enervating effect which disestablishment would have on the zealous of the religious community. If the church was destitute of energy and vigor the sooner they quitted the better.

Gathern Hardy took the floor. He accepted the appeal made to posterity in regard to the beneficial effects of the bill. He supported Disraeli's statement that John Bright used threats of a disposition of Parliament to keep his party together and coerce the House of Lords, which was of co-ordinate authority. He thought they had been treated in an unworthy manner.

Bright denied that he had ever used threats to dissolve the House. His only reference to the subject was that there might be an expression of popular opinion if the subject of concurrence or indorsement were referred to the nation. He regretted this charge which was brought forward, but which a great majority of the House disbelieved. After further debate a Committee was appointed to draw up a report embodying the reasons for disagreement with the amendments offered by the House of Lords. Adjourned.

Rio Janeiro advices to the 20th of June fully confirm the reported victory of the allies over Lopez. The Paraguayans lost 500 killed and wounded, 300 prisoners and 12 guns. The treaty establishing a provisional government for Paraguay has been concluded.

Hong Kong advices are to June 24th. A proclamation denouncing foreigners, was posted in towns on the Yantse river, by agents of a secret society discovered at Foo Chow, having for its object the opening of another rebellion. It is rumored that over fifty thousand men are connected with the movement.

Advices from Yokohama are to the 16th of June. The naval and military forces of the Mikado had commenced an attack on the rebels at Hakodadi. The result was unknown.

It is said the Lords will give up their amendments to the Irish Church bill in regard to concurrent endowment and the Ulster grants, but will adhere to the amendments refusing to devote the surplus proceeds of church property to the relief of unmitigable calamity and suffering, as proposed in the original preamble and deferring the appropriation of the fund.

LONDON, July 18.—Additional advices from Rio represent that the allied army in Paraguay, after its recent victory, advanced to Villa Rica, and at last accounts, commanded all the approaches to the place. President Lopez declared the Consuls of France and Italy deserters.

PARIS, July 17.—The newspapers say it is now certain that the new Ministry will be as follows: Minister of the Interior, Roquette: Minister of Justice, Duvergier; Minister of Foreign Affairs, Auveregne; Minister of Finance, Pierre Magne; Minister of Commerce, Alfred Beraux; Minister of Public Works, M. Gaessier; Minister of Marine, Admiral Gurelly; Minister of War, Marshal Neil. Rouher will be President of the Senate.

M. Lesseps officially announces that the ceremony of the opening of the Suez canal, will occur on November 17th.

MADRID, July 17.—The Governments of France and Prussia have recognized the Spanish Regency. The session of the Constitutional Cortes has been suspended until October. Previous to adjournment, the Cortes appointed a commission to supervise the affairs of the country during the intermission.

Two commissioned officers and three Sergeants of the garrison at Valladolid, and several volunteers of that city, were arrested for being engaged in the Carlistic intrigue.

There have been an unusual number of incendiary fires in Madrid. The civil an military authorities have redoubled their vigilance.

VIENNA, July 17.—The Emperor Francis Joseph gave an audience to-day to delegations of the Imperial and Hungarian Reichsraths. In reply to M. Damoglioth, President of the Hungarian delegation, he said he had been called to exercise equal influence over the common affairs of the Empire and the Kingdom. He had been guided by a wise moderation. The delegation would be aided by all the influence of the Monarchy in its labors for the consolidation of peace and public confidence. The Emperor then addressed Prince Awrestley, President of the Imperial delegation, and assured him that sincere co-operation with Hungary is the surest guarantee for the maintenance of internal and external peace.

BERLIN, July 17.—Deputy Mendes was sentenced to one years imprisonment and three women to three months imprisonment for complicity in the Dusseldorf riots.

LISBON, July 17.—Samuel Shellabarger yesterday had a special audience with the King and presented his credentials as Minister of the United States.

In the Evening Commercial of Saturday last I observe the publication of a report I made recently to the owners of the Excelsior Mine in the Bohemia Mining District, Oregon. I know not how the Commercial obtained the copy; I did not furnish it. It is, however, to mangled in the type that I am induced to offer a correct copy, which, if you think a matter of sufficient interest, I would beg its publication. Truly yours,

JOHN A. VEATCH.

RESOURCES OF OREGON.

To Messrs. Jesse Barker, L. F. Mosher, S. F. Chadwick, and others, owners in the Excelsior Mine, Bohemia District:

GENTLEMEN—In accordance with agreement I visited the Bohemia Mining District, and herein present you with the result of my observations.

I reached the central mining camp on the 11th inst. The position is elevated about six thousand feet above the sea level, as determined by the boiling point of water. Several loftier peaks of trap rock ascend near one thousand feet higher, inclosing the camp on three sides. The main summit is known as Mount Bohemia, bearing also the more imposing designation of Mount Majesty. This, together with Mount Fairview and another of less altitude enclose the camp in a kind of amphitheatre opening towards the southeast, its waters draining into the Umpqua river. The camp is in Douglas county, but the District embraces a portion of Lane county as well, occupying the broken region forming the divide betwixt the waters of the Willamette and those of the Umpqua.

The vein to which my attention was directly called was known as the Excelsior. It is located about two miles north-easterly from the camp on the summit of the above named divide. So exactly does it occupy the axis of the ridge running along and directly parallel with it, that the outcroppings on one side shed the waters into the Umpqua, and on the other into the coast fork of the Willamette. As this ridge is the division between Lane and Douglas counties, the rare spectacle is presented of a golden wall standing as a line of partition betwixt adjacent municipalities. Grouse Mountain is the name of the ridge; it has also been favored with further name, in keeping with that of its neighbor, Mount Majesty, and is occasionally called War Eagle Mountain. I much prefer the simpler and more appropriate designations. A level table marks this summit. It is narrow at the southwestern extremity [illegible] the Excelsior Lode, crops out most prominently, and increases in breadth toward the northeast for about a mile in length. A fine forest of pine and fir trees cover the greater part of the plateau.

The descent on the northwest or Willamette side is steep and almost perpendicular, in some places, for several hundred feet. A very gentle slope is presented on the opposite or Umpqua side, draining off into a ravine, north seventy degrees east, which seems to afford water all the year round.

The Excelsior Lode has a trend as near as I was able to determine of south sixty eight degrees; west and north sixty eight degrees east. The dip is very nearly perpendicular. The width is not well [illegible], as neither cross-cuts nor drifts have been made of sufficient extent to settle that important fact. A shaft fifteen or twenty feet deep, and some ten feet square has been sunk on the original location, and an open cut thirty feet in length has been run on the adjoining extension. Neither of these works exhibit the casings of the lode. A streak of some four feet in width flanked on either side by a narrow casing of very rich rock was pointed out to me as the ledge proper. It is however probable that this streak is only part and parcel of a great lode, as the adjacent rock on either hand is metal bearing, and differing in character from the basaltic rock forming the country, being an earthy, quatrose material, holding fine gold in every part. A width of one hundred and fifty feet is covered with the same character of out croppings, showing gold in every piece tested. The loose soil is also impregnated with gold, each panful washed exhibiting more or less of the precious dust. As this space is nearly an exact level, the gold would have been drifted by the mechanical action of water, but must have been placed where it now lies by the disintegration and decomposition of the rock on the spot.

VALUE OF THE ORE.

The evidences of value derived from mere inspection, are [illegible] than supplied by careful assays of samples taken at random from the outcroppings as well as from the cut and shaft. Out of ten assays from as many [illegible] I found but one to fall so low as $8 per ton, while four reached an average of $2,000, the remaining five ranged from $35 to $350 per ton.

The [illegible] I will state with a view to an impartial [illegible] that the [illegible] to be assayed by a practical working test, on a large scale. There are good grounds for believing that [illegible] the rock will yield $50 per ton, taking without discretion. The quantity of workable rock from appearance is practically inexhaustible. Should the breadth really prove to be 150 feet, each foot in length [illegible] on the lead would yield say ten tons. One hundred feet along the lead, with a depth of two hundred and fifty feet, (the point at which it can be conveniently tapped) would yield two hundred and fifty [illegible] tons, sufficient to supply a 20 stamp mill with continuous work for forty years. The yield at the above estimate, thirty dollars per ton, would equal $7,500,000.

CHARACTER OF THE VEIN ROCK.

It is mostly quartz, somewhat porous and very easily crushed. The gold is exceedingly fine, but it is granular and is therefore more easily separated by means of mercury than when it is in flakes. There [illegible] to be no [illegible] more than gold, save a little iron, as a [illegible] oxide. Arsenic, lead and antimony, those great pests in amalgamation are [illegible] not to be found.

PROBABLE PROFITS.

In estimating the profits so many months intervene, that a close calculation can hardly be expected in a new mining enterprise. The favorable conditions are abundance and richness of ore, facilities for reaching it, and proximity of the mill and mine, water, fuel, etc. In all of which nothing seems wanting in the present instance. The experience of California miners will aid us in the estimate of profits. Ten dollars per ton is there considered as fully justifying the employment of capital, where plenty of rock can be had at reasonable expense. Indeed such a yield is sufficient to place a vein in the front rank of valuable mining property.

FACILITIES FOR WORKING.

The configuration of the surface of [illegible] ordinary facilities for penetrating the lode at a great depth. The north wall [illegible] side dips from the outcrop with a grade of at least forty-five [illegible] for several hundred feet, [illegible] affording abundant springs of water and a good site for machinery. The vein from this side can be reached by a short tunnel and [illegible] vent a depth of 250 or 300 feet below the [illegible]. The ore may be sent down a chute from the mouth of the tunnel direct to the mill. This facilitates drainage and removal of ore, and presents rare and perhaps unequalled advantages. Fuel can be furnished at a minimum price. Timbering for galleries and drifts can be procured from the surface of ground occupied by the vein. With such favorable facilities, the entire [illegible] of extracting and milling the ore could hardly exceed $5 per ton.

ARE THERE ONE OR TWO LODES?

An important question remains to be settled as to whether there may not be two parallel Lodes instead of one great vein. Both theories are about equally supported by certain appearances on the surface. A recent location has been made on the northern side of the original Excelsior on the supposed parallel Lode. If there really be two veins they should belong to the same company. A tunnel or deep cross cut would readily settle the fact as to the existence of one or two lodes.

Should there be two veins an intervening space of barren ground will of course occur, marking division betwixt them. The quantity of ore would be reduced, and leave room for two large valuable veins both, workable through the same tunnel.

DIVISION OF THE EXCELSIOR.

I find this valuable lode partitioned off by several companies and individual claimants. The original location embraces 1,000 feet running from near the prospect shaft north-easterly. From the same point and running in an opposite direction is an extension claim of three hundred feet, and continuously with this, again, a company of 2,100 feet. These claims to be of any great value should be cemented into one, or at least 1,500 feet embracing one half of the original location should be placed together to secure the most advantageous points for effective working.

CONCLUSION.

The limited facilities placed at my disposition were too few, and my stay restricted to so short a period, that I was wholly unable to examine the locality as its importance demanded. I needed at least two efficient laborers with pick and shovel and the requisite comforts of camp life, for at least two weeks to aid my researches. As it was, I had

Writing for Koopmanschap.

[From the Alta California.]

In the city of San Francisco dwells a resident merchant, engaged in the China trade, by the name of Charles Koopmanschap. For many years he has been busy with forwarding and receiving freights, making exchanges and attending generally to an interchange of commercial values. This citizen, useful in his way, has quietly pursued his course undisturbed, unconsciously aiding in that civilization on which commerce waits, not dreaming of the importance that was in store for him. He bought and sold rice, tea and other Chinese and Japanese products, transmitting, in return, the sought-for commodities of our own markets. Gradually, in consequence of this increased tide of immigration from China into California, Koopmanschap's business was reinforced by more or less passenger traffic, and his correspondence with commercial men in the Central Flowery Kingdom had some bearing upon the growing demand in the United States for Chinese laborers. Meanwhile, slavery had been abolished in the Southern States under such circumstances as created additional prejudices against the negro, and the people of that region, bent on spiting the liberated African, refused to employ him as a freeman, since they could not employ him as a slave. They resolved to import Chinese laborers by the way of San Francisco, and, unmindful of the violent protests of Mr. J. W. Coffroth and other equally ingenious Democrats of California, they sent for Koopmanschap. He heard the Macedonian cry from Memphis, and came to [illegible] with them if they would call a Convention on the 12th of July. This was done. And so the rice fields of Georgia, the cotton plantations of Alabama, the uncultivated wastes of Mississippi, the cane fields of Louisiana and the tar buckets of North Carolina are all waiting for Koopmanschap. Reconstruction moves tardily on and unnoticed; the Ku-Klux are fading away, and outrages are dying out, but industrial progress and development wait for Koopmanschap. [illegible] that the Chinese is a very disreputable person, that his odor heretofore undetected is unendurable, and that his labor, profitable enough when not paid for (except in [illegible]) is dearly bought at current rates of wages. But how about the Virginia and Kentucky resolutions? Can that stannch old Democrat, Isham G. Harris, preside over a Convention [illegible] for Koopmanschap, bring it twenty thousand Chinamen, after the California Convention, presided over by that equally stanch old Democrat, Frank P. Hoge, has disgracefully spawned those Pagans forth? What is it to become of the fine-spun theories of Governor Haight and the Morning Call if the Democratic ex-slaveholders of the South hold out the hand imploringly [illegible] and loudly call on Koopmanschap? Certain Californians propose to put up a sort of Chinese wall of exclusion along the Pacific [illegible] to keep out what Senator Conness clearly [illegible] the most powerful, industrious and [illegible] people on the face of the earth [illegible] the South, inspired by [illegible] destitute [illegible] Governor Haight, [illegible] Horses [illegible] and still [illegible] such things [illegible] cloud, [illegible] only [illegible] doubtless did not [illegible] form and [illegible] special [illegible] the race with the Chinaman for political supremacy. They are their own best judges as to the [illegible] ity [illegible] that the South [illegible] the [illegible] of "brave [illegible] borders of [illegible] into their States, if, according to the [illegible] is in direct opposition with the teachings of Washington [illegible] and the Kentucky Resolutions. And so Isham G. Harris and his fellow conspirators against the California Convention, leave the ploughshare in the furrow, lay down the hoe and the hoe, and wait for Koopmanschap.

[From the St. Louis Post, July 3.]

One of the most [illegible] instances which [illegible] occurred about ten minutes to two o'clock [illegible] at the [illegible] on the suburbs of the city, and even at Kinloch Station. Cheltenham and Kirkwood, were suddenly awakened by a shock that jarred their houses to their foundation. The shock was immediately followed by a rumbling noise like [illegible] and by a rattling of panes, and shaking of beds and chairs. [illegible] the most [illegible] of such [illegible] who vividly felt it were momentarily thought [illegible] and when they fully realized [illegible] of any [illegible] sign [illegible] the [illegible] fear. Men [illegible] and [illegible] and [illegible] in their [illegible] and [illegible] when they [illegible] as [illegible] of [illegible] For suburban [illegible] last night was one of terror, [illegible] will be [illegible] with no feeling of pleasure for many years to come.

One [illegible] living at Cheltenham asserts that [illegible] was the [illegible] that he was rolled out of bed. The family of Mr. Reilly, of the same place, was [illegible] awakened, and they [illegible] lives that [illegible] flying apartments to [illegible] Mr. Valle, and other residents of Walnut street, state that they experienced the shock very forcibly, and describe it as having been very sudden, something similar to the collision of trains. The rattling continued for about two minutes. Families living in the neighborhood of the arsenal were also awakened up.

So far as our information goes, the quaking [illegible] miles square. Those living in the heart of the city, who are used to the noises created by street [illegible] wagons, and whose houses are almost constantly shaken [illegible] paid but little heed to the matter. But it is nevertheless certain that the earth underlying our immense superstructure [illegible] might [illegible] with the same degree of uncertainty that a leaf having but little to hold it hangs on to the parent stem.

HYGEIAN HOME

WATER CURE,

627 California Street,

SAN FRANCISCO.

DR. HARLOW J. SMITH

WOULD RESPECTFULLY INFORM HIS FORMER patrons, and all who desire the professional services of a Hygienic Physician, that he has just returned from the East, after an absence of four months, during which time he has visited nearly all the Water Cures in the Eastern States, and the various Hygienic Establishments of New York City, Boston and Philadelphia; and with this new experience feels more fully prepared than ever to meet all the demands that invalids may justly claim who desire to be cured by this rational form of medication.

In January last DR. SMITH purchased the extensive lot corner of Quincy and California streets, with the buildings thereon, which he has fitted up at great expense, for the accommodation of PATIENTS and BOARDERS, with a greater variety of baths for the cure of DISEASE as well as popular bathing than is to be found in any Water Cure in the United States.

HYGEIAN HOME is the only Regular Water Cure in San Francisco, and by far the most extensive and complete Hygienic Institute on the Pacific Coast.

And we offer to Ministers, Teachers, Lawyers, Miners, Merchants, Mechanics, Farmers, and all worthy persons, especially those who have tried drugs faithfully without being restored, and who are still desirous of regaining health by this rational system of medicine, the hospitalities of our Hygienic Home and Cure. Young men who have become debilitated or lost their health by excessive toil, exposure or enervating habits, contracted through ignorance of physical laws, may with us find more of the encouragement they need, and means that will restore them to health, than elsewhere in California.

There is not one man in twenty suffering from Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Gout, or Diseased Liver, Chills and Fever, Dyspepsia, Drug or Secondary Diseases, Spermatorrhœa or Seminal Weakness, Impotency or Nervous Debility, Weak or Inflamed Eyes, Bronchical and Catarrhal Affections, Disease of the Heart, Lungs, Kidneys, Constipation, Paralysis, Scrofula, Piles, Inflammation of the Bowels, Chronic and Acute Diarrhœa, Stiff Joints, Oak Poisoning, Weak Backs, Hip Disease, Salt Rheum and many other Diseases common to Men and Women, that cannot be permanently cured in from two to six weeks by Water Cure and Hygienic treatment. Not only will they get cured, but they can learn how to keep well when they go to their mountain homes, their mines, their farms, their stores, and all this for one-half what it would cost to take drugs.

Terms $20, by the single week, or $60 for four weeks, Board, Room and Treatment (in all ordinary cases).

N. B.—All suffering from cutaneous diseases are treated in separate baths, which are never used by persons bathing for cleanliness. The greatest care and neatness is observed in this respect. No contagious diseases, such as Small Pox and Ship Fever, treated in the Institution.

We have a separate Medical Department for Ladies, which is attended by a thoroughly competent woman, while the private residence of DR. SMITH, which is connected with the Home, is chiefly devoted to the accommodation of ladies desiring Hygienic medical treatment.

We have for the past ten years made the treatment of female diseases a specialty, and have treated a great number of females, both in the Institute and in their private residences in this city, Sacramento and Oakland, who were suffering from Displacements, Prolapsus Uteri, Uterine Hemorrhage, Sterility, Curvatures of the Spine, Inflammation, Congestions, and ALL NERVOUS DISEASES, together with dis[illegible] common to all.

The ease and rapidity with which the varied and conditions above mentioned have been overcome, especially in the vicinity of the Bay, fully warrant us in declaring that there is not one female in a hundred who is thus afflicted but that can be made well and happy in from three to six weeks by thorough Hydropathic and Hygienic treatment at our Cure. From all who have come to us and been treated, we have yet to learn a single regret from Husband or Wife of the time, means or trouble they expended in HYGIENIC MEDICATION, for they not only get well, but learn how to keep well.

Terms for Ladies, $20 a week, or $100 for six weeks (Board, Room and treatment).

DR. SMITH gives FREE Lectures to his patients every Wednesday evening, and also Lectures before the Ladies' Hygienic Society the first Wednesday in each month.

Ophthalmic Panacea!

IS WITHOUT DOUBT THE MOST WONDERFUL EYE HEALER that has yet been discovered.

It CURES the most stubborn and hopeless cases of CHRONIC INFLAMMATIONS, GRANULATED LIDS, FILMS, &c., as has been sufficiently demonstrated during the few months in which it has been brought into public notice. The proprietor is so fully convinced of its INFALLIBILITY that he WARRANTS A CURE OR REFUNDS THE MONEY. It can do the eyes no harm, and a trial of it is therefore without injury or expense to the patient if a cure is not effected.

It has cured cases of FIVE, SIX, NINE, FIFTEEN, and even EIGHTEEN YEARS' standing in Harrisburg,

EAST PORTLAND, July 14th 1869

DEAR TRAIN—You have aroused our people and they are buckling on their armor and going into the fray with California. You have stepped on our corns, and in consequence a change is coming over the spirit of our dreams. Now, Train, are you leave the "Webfoot country," I would like to obtain from you the impressions it has produced on the tablets of your mind in that wonderful brain of yours. What you may be pleased to communicate shall be enfrenuous, so give the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God and the great American people whom you are working for.

Truly and sincerely yours,
A. M. LORYEA

OREGON CITY, OREGON, July 16th, 1869

DEAR DR. LORYEA—Of course I will—only five minutes but they are yours. We like those who like us—that is all there is in life. Oregon likes me; I like Oregon. Portland gave me a warm welcome. Clubs, steamboats, stages, railroads, private residences opened wide their doors.

Called a charlatan in San Francisco; I replied by damaging their real estate. Called a good fellow in Oregon; I reply in kind. California has absorbed you. Oregon was a sponge squeezed in San Francisco. Your flour, timber, salmon, fruit, individuality has all been absorbed. I shall make your State known far and wide. Newspapers are obliged to abuse me, or praise me, as a matter of commerce. Fire proof against abuse praise, finance, wine and women, the world may hiss or cheer—'tis all the same to me.

What Oregon wants is advertising. For instance, you spend four thousand on your Fourth of July, and nobody hears of the grand celebration out of the State. You should have paid two thousand dollars for associated press dispatches and advertise it to the world. Should have had short-hand reporters taking down oration and railroad speeches, and should have sent off ten thousand papers far and wide. Already I have advertised Oregon more in thirty days than you have done in twenty years, and the ball commences to roll. You have a great future. Seward is right. Before our national centenary we shall have three railroads joining Atlantic with Pacific, and the Oregon wilderness will soon "blossom as the rose," and so up with your woolen factories, paper mills, iron foundries; on with your railroads, East, West, North and South; make your connection with Union Pacific from Umatilla to Indian Creek, and as you are twenty-one years old, discharge your wet nurse at San Francisco. Whenever a deputation of five men strike San Francisco, like the Chicago excursionists now visiting there, why don't you telegraph to them, offering them the hospitalities of your State, towns, club and city, picking out the liveliest men for your committee? And above all, and immediately, too, you must build a first-class hotel—make a joint stock company. I built the Occona House in sixty days in Omaha. With your enterprise you could do it in half the time. Have Boyd, Ainsworth, Ladd, Aukney, Reed and the rest go in for a hotel before I send the people out here to you, and as for yourself, turn philanthropist and make your future in a Turkish bath. * * * * Tell Ben Holladay not to forget what I said to him. * * * * Everybody should forget and forgive; shake hands and work for Oregon, the great State of the great Northwest. Another point. You should send Waddins' thirty pictures to Harpers or Frank Leslies, and have them published out of your city funds, with a picture of Oregon, Oregon City falls, Salem, etc., etc. Also have a mineralogical report preparatory to geological survey. Say all kinds of pleasant things to those who have generously taken me by the hand, and tell them to wheel Oregon into the Union on Chinese emigration and greenbacks.

You are my friend, and I am yours, sincerely,
GEORGE FRANCIS TRAIN.

SAN FRANCISCO MARKETS.—From the papers of the 14th inst., received per Moses Taylor, we clip the following items concerning the markets at that date:

Money is without material change. Bank rates remain steady at 1@1½ ₱ cent; street rates, 1½@2 ₱ cent. There is no eager inquiry for accommodations. The supply is sufficient to meet the demand, and with the moving of the grain crop a gradual improvement may be anticipated.

Flour—Owing to the advanced rates and firm aspect of the wheat market, together with orders for low grades of outside brands for China, prices show a slight advance with a firm, if not upward, tendency. On the 9th inst., some of the leading local mills determined to raise prices 12½¢ ₱ bbl. The advance has been well maintained and sales of Oregon and outside brands, made since the above date, fully endorse the view taken by the firms that took the initiative. Small orders of extra have lately been given for Mexico and Liverpool. Commercial (Oregon) extra has been sold at $5 00, in lots, for city consumption. [illegible] brands of Oregon have been sold at $4 62½@4 75 W bbl. (Oregon) extra is quotable at present date at $5 [illegible]. The steady sales of this brand have been made during the past week at lower rates. Otherwise we quote the market at $5 25@5 50 for choice family and bakers' extra; $4 [illegible]@4 12½ for shipping extra; $4 25@4 62½ for superfine, and $3 62½@3 87½ for ship. The New York market is dull at $6 50@6 75. The Imperial Oregon is quotable at about $6 87½.

Wheat—The week has ruled firm with an upward tendency, and the market closes at $1 55@1 70 for choice shipping. There is but little demand for milling. Considerable purchases for export are being made to the country, the particulars of which are unreported.

Wool—sales for the week reported by two firms aggregate 282,704 lbs spring clip at 17@20c. The latter rate is apparently the extreme of the market.

PORTLAND LIBRARY.—The following new books have just been added to the Portland Library: Eight Years Wanderings in Ceylon, by Baker; The Villa on the Rhine, by Auerbach; The Wedding Day in all Ages and Countries, by Wood; Woman's Complete Guide to Health; Shortest Route to California, by Ide; The Saxon Home and Hereafter, by Holcombe; Three Thousand Miles Through the Rocky Mountains, by McClure; Italy, Florence and Venice, by Taine; The Gates Wide Open, by Wood; Our New Way Round the World, by Carleton; Warwick—A novel by Walworth; Swinburne's Lyrics; Problematic Characters, a novel—by Sheridan; Life of Audubon, the Naturalist; The New West, or California in 1867-68, by Brace; Golden Treasury, by Palgrave; The Life and Epistles of St. Paul; Jessie Carter, the Artist; Emerson's Essays, by Flagg; Life of Doddridge, by Harsha; How Lisa Came to the King, by Eliot; Force and Nature, by Wells.

FOR CALIFORNIA.—The following is the list of passengers for San Francisco per Gussie Telfair to Portland and thence per Oriflamme: J N Dolph, wife and two children, Miss M O'Conner, Chas O'Conner, J Cronin, Rev W H Hilsey, W J Callinghant, Wm Lumgair, P L Converse, N Disenberry, wife and two children, Mrs Hillebrannn, B F Morris, J Kelton and wife, J Winchip, Mrs E Morse and five children, F Alfotti, M S Rose, Mrs Savage, Mrs Downing and three children, M Wolf, E Kohn, J McHenry, Miss L Vaughn, W W Martain, H J Hathaway, J S Durgeo, Fang Chang, Ord West (Wells, Fargo's messenger and 23 in the steerage.

PERSONAL.—Among the arrivals by the steamer are Messrs. H. C. Coulson and A. M. Starr, both old residents of Portland. Mr. Coulson has been for some months at White Pine. Mr. Starr has been a long time at the East.

Mr. T. Patterson, of the Herald, arrived home with new material for that paper. It is to have a new dress.

Among the departures this morning, by steamer, will be Mr. J. M. Dolph and family, who are going East on a visit, and Mr. S. B. Parrish, who is going to San Francisco, to enter business there.

CHANNEL AT THE MOUTH OF THE RIVER.—Capt. West informs us that he has made a survey of the channel at the mouth of the Wallamet river, with a view to ascertain whether it has changed since the suspension of work last fall. He finds it exactly as when he then left it. There has been apparently no drift of sand, mud or snags. The work of completing the opening of the channel will, therefore, be much lighter than had been expected. Capt. West expects to resume work some time during the present week. The channel is to be opened to the depth of eighteen feet at low water.

THE MOSES TAYLOR.—This steamer is now in our waters for the first time. She formerly ran in the San Francisco and Panama trade as an opposition steamer. She is a vessel of 1,354 tons register, with a carrying capacity of 900 tons; with an upper deck saloon and cabin, affording excellent passenger accommodations. She has recently been put in thorough repair. In form and size she is much like the Sierra Nevada, though smuch neater and comfortable looking ship.

CIRCUIT COURT—UPTON, JUDGE.—The following were the proceedings yesterday:

F. Miller and wife vs. J. F. Coyne & Rafter; action for damages; judgment on verdict of jury in favor of plaintiffs for $650.

Wm O. Bruen vs. Tidd & Wyman, set for hearing Tuesday morning.

REGATTA.—Entries for the regatta which is to come off on Saturday the 24th, will be received at the club room, [illegible] of Yamhill and Front streets, every evening between the hours of seven and nine o'clock, till Friday evening the 23d. On that evening the owners of boats and members of the club are requested to meet at the club rooms to complete arrangements for the regatta and to transact any necessary business.

ARMY AGENTS ARRIVED.—Three or four of the army agents, detailed to take charge of Indian reservations in Oregon, arrived by the steamer Moses Taylor, yesterday morning. Lieut. W. Mitchell, detailed for the Warm Springs agency, will leave this morning for that place. Major W. R. Gibson, of the Pay Department, is among the arrivals.

VESSELS FROM NEW YORK.—Mr. Mercer informs us that the bark Edward James is now loading at New York for Portland, and will sail in about ten days. The Adeline Elwood is out about one hundred days, and the A. Heffen about thirty days. Hereafter, a vessel will leave about every forty days.

OUT ON CONFINEMENT.—The Chinese passengers by the bark Onward, who have been in camp below the city for a week, were released from quarantine yesterday morning. During the day, they visited the city in gangs, wandering about and "doing" the city.

FUNERAL.—The remains of Mr H. Wasserman will be buried today. The funeral will take place from the residence of the family, corner of Second and Pine streets, at 10 o'clock A. M. The friends of the family are invited to attend.

ON THE WAY HOME.—Senator Williams left Washington for Oregon Sunday evening. He may, therefore, be expected home before the last of this month.

U. S. DISTRICT COURT.—In consequence of the absence of Judge Deady, the U. S. District Court yesterday adjourned till Monday the 26th inst.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.—The Board of County Commissioners met yesterday and received the financial report of the County Clerk, and made an order for its publication in the daily and weekly OREGONIAN and Herald. The Board then adjourned sine die.

RAILROAD WORK.—We hear that it is true that the camp, on the West Side railroad are being put in order, with a view to the early resumption of work. One of the directors informed us yesterday that a force would be put on in a few days.

FOR WHITE PINE.—Mr. L. P. Lauterwasser, late of the firm of Lauterwasser & Harling, butchers, has started for White Pine, with over 2,000 head of cattle belonging to Mr Jos Teal. These cattle are to be but bered in the mines.

TO SAIL.—The steamer Gussie Telfair will go to Astoria to-day with passengers for the steamer Oriflamme to San Francisco. She will return to this port and sail for Puget Sound and Victoria on Thursday, the 22d.

GOOD TEMPLARS' MEETING.—The members of Crystal Lodge No. 14, I. O. G. T. are requested to attend the regular meeting to-night, as there is business of importance to transact.

A MISTAKE.—A few days since the Unionist stated that one of the printers in the OREGONIAN office had purchased the McMinnville Courier. The Unionist has been misinformed.

THE FLAX CROP.—We have information that the flax crop in most localities will be so short, in consequence of the drouth, as to scarcely pay for gathering.

FREIGHT RECEIVED.—The steamer Moses Taylor brought up about 600 tons of freight.

MANIA FOR MARRYING ACTRESSES.—As to actresses, there are none of eminence. The English have a weakness for marrying actresses who distinguish themselves, and therefore rob the stage for the sake of the nursery.

Kate Terry, the best of the English actresses, became the wife of a wealthy linen draper some time ago, and now lives in elegant style at the West End.

Madge Robertson, of the Gaiety, sister of the well-known dramatist, is soon to take a husband, so is Carlotta Addison, of the Prince of Wales, and others.

SALT LAKE.—The editor of the Corinne Reporter has been bathing in Salt Lake, and gives his experience as follows:

The water of Salt Lake is so dense that a man cannot sink in it. Ourselves demonstrated this to all present by standing upright in the water, and without the least motion could not sink to the chin. We could lie on the water—stand in it—take almost any position, and still we would float, and could not sink. It is necessary after swimming in this briny water to rinse off with fresh, for the salt of the water condenses on our persons and leaves us when dry, looking as if we had been powdered all over with white chalk.

HOW TO GROW LARGE POTATOES. The North British Agriculturist says. "To improve the size of potatoes, whether planted with small or large, whole, or even cut potatoes, when the plants are only a few inches high, let the shoots be reduced by pulling them up to one or two, or at most three of the strongest. The tubers will, consequently, be fewer and very much larger, also in measure nearly all fit for market and the table. Every grower will do well to try a few rows by way of experiment, if he disbelieves the truth of this statement."

G. F. TRAIN on his but does not always practice—for he patronized the Oregon Dispensary and used our [illegible] to cure his boils that caught those large. Salmon. Since his lectures on Dorcons and Dress Stoans we have had an unprecedented run for our numerous remedies, toilet articles, etc., etc. It has been said that Mr. Train was induced by us to deliver that lecture, but we assure our numerous patrons that we do not use such means to obtain patronage. We do the largest trade because our Druggists are the most competent and our medicines and goods are fresh, pure and cheap.

LORYEA & KALLENBERG,
73 First Street.

AN EXCELLENT OPPORTUNITY is now offered to buy dry goods very low at the store of KOHN & FISHEL, who positively will sell all their dry goods at cost, being determined to close that branch of business. A call at their store, No. 91, Front street, will save a purchaser at least twenty per cent.

OLYMPIA, W. T., May 24, 1869.

THE UNDERSIGNED WOULD RESPECTFULLY solicit subscriptions to enable them to publish a MAP OF WASHINGTON TERRITORY West of the Cascades, compiled from the United States Surveys and the best and latest authorities. The scale is four miles to an inch, making the map sixty seven by fifty one inches. THE SUBSCRIPTION PRICE IS TEN DOLLARS; RETAIL PRICE, TWELVE DOLLARS. The map will be furnished, colored, mounted and complete, by August 1st. It was forwarded in March to the establishment of Colton & Co., New York, for publication.

Subscriptions may be forwarded to Joseph Cushman, Receiver Land Office, Olympia; W. C. Painter, Walla Walla; A. G. Cook, Vancouver; S. J. McCormick, Portland, who will receipt.

We call attention to the following endorsements:

ENDORSEMENTS.

OLYMPIA, W. T., March 27, 1869.

C. A. WHITE, Esq.—Dear Sir, Having examined your original map, embracing that portion of Washington Territory west of the Cascade Range, I desire to add my testimony to its value. Having been engaged for a number of years in the surveys from Cape Flattery to the Head of Puget Sound, I have examined this portion of your map more critically than others, and I take pleasure in vouching for its general correctness.

This map will fill a want that has long been felt, not only among the residents of this Territory but others, who are desirous of obtaining information of this portion of the "far West," and I trust that we shall soon see it in a form suitable for general distribution.

Asst. U. S. C. S.

We endorse the annexed opinion of Jas. S. Lawson, Esq., and will add that Mr. Chas. A. White is a practical surveyor, and has had access to the township maps in the two Land Offices in this Territory, as also the Coast Survey charts; and we can vouch for his map of Washington Territory, west of the Cascade Range of Mountains, as being correct, and the only good map of the same territory that has been made.

POWDER AND SHOT, for sale by

NOTICE.

WE TAKE PLEASURE IN CALLING the attention of dealers to a valuable Patent just invented in Electro-Plating the Spoons and Forks out of which those parts touching the lips are to be of pure German

EXTRA COAT OF SILVER!

THREE TIMES THE USUAL THICKNESS.

Not on the back of the handle, heel of the bowl and points of bowls of spoons—back of the handle and breast and points of tines of forks, as illustrated in cut.

This mode of Electro Plating greatly supercedes the old way of plating. The great advantage will be readily seen, as spoons and forks always wear through on these exposed points, while the plate is yet good on other parts of the article. This new process will add THREE TIMES TO THE DURABILITY of goods so plated.

Knives, forks and spoons stamped "1847 ROGERS BROTHERS ALTO," are Electro Plated by the new Patented Process.

We have now been before the public since 1852, "manufacturing" ELECTRO-PLATED GOODS, which have stood the most severe tests of wear in hotels, steamers and private families, and have given universal satisfaction, supplying, as it does, all of the advantages of silver in durability and beauty. We wish to call particular attention to the hardness and firmness of our White Metal, which exceeds anything of the kind made in this country. All goods plated on this metal bear our trade mark, and the plating is warranted THREE TIMES THE USUAL THICKNESS.

Its Policies are Negotiable.

By the Charter of the Company, certificates of obligations will be issued, agreeing to purchase its Policies at their value which, when accompanied by the Policy duly assigned or transferred, are negotiable, and may be used as collateral security, in making loans from the Company or from other parties.

The Hon. Jno. B. Sandford, Insurance Commissioner of Massachusetts, in his Report for 1868, speaking of Dividends in Life Insurance Companies, says: "The sooner such guarantees cease to be made, and such expectations created, the sooner Life Insurance will come to rest on its true motive, and men insure their lives for security, and not for dividends. The best and most popular companies will then be those that promise only equity, and render all that they promise, and furnish the best security, with the most upright and judicious management."

"By the Stock plan, the full cash effect of the Premium is immediately secured to the Insured, the Company taking ALL the risk. By the Mutual plan, the full value in Insurance of the Premium paid, is not so cured to the Policy-holder, who takes a portion of the risk himself."

TUESDAY MORNING, JULY 20, 1869.

Railroad Activity.

Assurances are given that work on the west side railroad will be resumed at once and prosecuted with energy. It gratifies us to make this announcement, as it doubtless will gratify others to read it. Furthermore, we doubt not that it would gratify our whole people to witness a race between the two roads to see which should first reach the head of the valley. This is the only species of rivalry which should exist between them. Certainly it is the only species of rivalry that can be profitable to the country. Precisely what arrangements the west side company have made for going forward with their work we are not informed; but as it is announced that they are to begin this week we presume their preparations are fully made for finishing a section of the road this year. The renewal of work on the west side will give the public confidence in the enterprise, and those who have promised it assistance, as well as all others who are interested in the industrial progress of the country, should co-operate to give it all the aid and encouragement in their power.

It is obvious enough that there is a demand for two roads through the Wallamet valley, and that neither of them should be in the way of the other. And if it is still impossible for them to quiet the litigation which has so unfortunately sprung up between them, it is every way desirable to the State that both enterprises shall go on and that this litigation shall not hinder their progress further. The construction of these roads and the apparent certainty that we shall within a few years obtain railroad communication across the continent with the East opens a boundless prospect for the future of Oregon. The activity which must be produced by the construction of two lines of railroad through this valley cannot result otherwise than in building up many other important branches of industry and thus largely promoting the general prosperity. We want and and must have a complete reformation in the methods of industry in Oregon. How long are we to continue to send away our wheat to San Francisco and New York, realizing merely nominal prices for it, and import butter and other common products, paying the highest prices for them? Not much longer, if we are ever going to make anything of our State. A large part of our wool crop is sent to the best water power in the world to be transported thousands of miles and manufactured into goods which are returned to us again, while we are delving in the mines or toiling in the grain fields to pay the profits which these make upon the transaction. Now the [illegible] at home instead tries is just what will change this. And the most important agency in developing home industry is the railroad. It gives opportunity for a thousand new enterprises, brings the producer and consumer near to each other, changes a dull, lifeless community into an active and busy people and enables every man to work at an advantage to himself and to the country. Thus a state of society is produced which it is tolerable to live in. People begin at once to feel at home. They no longer regard themselves as in an out of the way corner of the world where they must manage in some way to live, but they can make preparation to go to some more favored locality. Oregon must be made a home for its people, that they may entirely discard the dreamy idea of "making a raise" and going somewhere else to live. Enterprises are now crowding upon us which will in a short time give our State as many advantages as any other possess, while we shall have in our climate, our forests, our mines, our water courses and our soil, natural advantages which few other States can boast of. The view thus afforded of our future is a most encouraging one, and the locomotive, whose shrill whistle we shall soon hear, will open the way to these grand results.

In General.

The party connected with the Chicago Committee of Commerce, now "doing" California, numbers about one hundred persons. There are enough to see a great deal and to acquire a large fund of information as well as to drink a considerable quantity of champagne.

The promoters of the enterprises in favoring filibustering expeditions in New York is severely commented on by some of the papers, but it merely illustrates the principles set forth by the President in his inaugural, that he would enforce all laws, until they were constitutionally set aside or repealed.

There is cutting irony in the dispatch from San Francisco announcing the formation of a society there to protect Chinese, on the arrival of steamers from China, from "civilized outrages!" The Democratic rabble of San Francisco has given that city a very unenviable reputation throughout the whole country.

Speaking of the fact that the Democrats of Virginia joined in with the negroes in the late election and worked and voted with them, an exchange says: "It is a part of the strange history of the times that the men who put up the negro and lost him, as a bondman, are again putting him up as a freeman and winning the day."

Mayor McCoppin of San Francisco is a candidate for re-election, and his "record" is giving him much trouble. He was not naturalized until December 12, 1864; yet prior to that time he was year after year voting and holding public office in San Francisco. The newspapers are making out a very ugly case against him.

Democracy in Virginia has taken the colored man to its bosom. On this state of affairs the Sacramento Bee remarks: "We do suppose that if a California Democrat were to march into Richmond to-day and propose to a brother Democrat that the Fifteenth Amendment should be defeated the Californian would be knocked down on the spot, and perhaps torn to pieces by an infuriated Virginia Democracy."

Portland, Maine, is making a strike for metropolitan pre-eminence. The terminal fever is spreading on the Atlantic seaboard as well as on the Pacific. The people of Portland-on-Atlantic propose to obtain direct railroad connections with Buffalo, Chicago and other northern cities, and thus make their city a great shipping point, rivalling New York and controlling the direct trade to Europe. Possibly there may be something in this. If so, the Northern Pacific railroad will be the means of developing it.

The Washington Typographical Union has resolved to amend its constitution so as to give employers leave (!) to increase the number of their apprentices. This is kind, indeed. But it is really a sensible thing for the Union to expunge from its constitution a clause which assumes to regulate the business of the Government printing office. The attempt of various Trades Unions nowadays to control the business of their employers is intolerable insolence, and the sooner workingmen recede from such an absurd demand the better. They have an undeniable right to combine to keep up their wages and to refuse to work unless their terms are complied with; but they have no right whatever to dictate how many apprentices or how many workmen a contractor or manufacturer shall employ.

The exploration of the great Canyon of the Colorado is a geographical problem of the highest interest, and the curious will not rest until the problem is solved. Major Powell's expedition, it seems, was not successful. His plan was to pass down through the canyon as the water receded, hoping to find a narrow plateau along the margin of the river, which would enable him to let his boats down over any rapids that might be found. The canyon is a huge crack in the earth's crust, about a mile wide, with perpendicular walls from two to five or six thousand feet above the river, made by some terrible convulsion of nature. The whole country along the canyon is volcanic and utterly destitute of vegetation. Lateral canyons, branching out at right angles, and requiring several days to go round them, render it impossible for parties to follow down the banks of the river, could water be obtained from its terrible current, rushing between its walls nearly a mile below the explorer.

The Frauds at New Orleans.

The dispatches of late have been furnishing accounts of the seizure by the Custom House officers at New Orleans of large quantities of sugar for violations of the revenue laws. Other large quantities of sugar entered by way of New Orleans have been seized at St. Louis, Chicago and other cities. The New Orleans Times of recent date has an article on these fraudulent transactions, from which we take the following:

Since the 1st of March it has become obvious to Collector Casey and Col. Charles Dillingham, of the Naval Office, that large frauds have been perpetrated upon the Government, dating, possibly, as far back as five years ago, and that attempts were being made to continue the same system of operations. Let us now explain how these frauds are planned.

To succeed in an attempt of this sort, it is necessary that two invoices should be drawn up; the one containing the correct figures the "ring" itself retains for its own use. That which is intended as a blind is sent to the Custom House. Upon this the grading of sugars is lowered about ten per cent. That is to say, each hogshead is underweighed about one hundred and fifty pounds and each box about forty. The sugar is brought to the city on a schooner capable of containing 1,000 hogsheads—arrives at the port and is here unloaded.

One would naturally think, as the sugar has to be reweighed here, that the fraud would be transparent the moment the scales were applied. But no; singular as it may appear, the weight here corresponds exactly with the false manifest. The law, too, provides another test for the prevention of frauds. It classifies sugar into twenty grades, adopting what is known as the Dutch standard in color. It says, for instance, that the sugar which is above class No. 12, and which does not go over No. 15, shall pay a tax of three and a half cents a pound. The cheat upon the Government, under this important law, consists, as in the wine frauds, in shipping a superior grade for an inferior one.

The attention of the Custom House officers was attracted to the matter by the obvious difference between the amount described in the manifest and what a box of sugar is well known ordinarily to contain. Once an examination was instituted the fraud in a moment became manifest. The boxes, which are said so small in the invoices, did not prove to be below the ordinary size, when examined close at hand, and a system of gigantic deception had evidently been practised, as one could see at the first glance.

Rumor has it that the principal party engaged in this matter has embarked $1,000,000 in the enterprise. If such should be the case the recent discoveries will result probably in his ruin. The sugar to-day seized amounts to 4,000 hogsheads, and there are besides 4,000 boxes in the same lot. The value of this amount reaches $250,000, and as sugar fraudulently imported is confiscated by the Government, a proof of the above facts will undoubtedly result in its loss. The supposition is that an immense amount besides the above will be found elsewhere, and this will be confiscated as soon as raised.

The most singular part of this affair to the ring is that any noise should be made about the matter and they naturally are astonished that the Collector and Naval Officer are not satisfied to take one-half profits and say nothing. Scarcely any attempt is made to conceal the fact that such frauds have been perpetrated, and the most that is now sought is that all investigations should be hushed up. To judge from what is now said, there never was any previous opposition made to such frauds upon the revenue, and to the mind of the ring it appears incredible that the Government should be serious in enforcing the laws. Under the circumstances, that high credit should be given to Collector Casey and Mr. Dillingham for exposing these frauds, no one familiar to Custom House history will for a moment deny.

Chinese for New York.

According to the New York papers, the house keepers of New York are demanding the importation of Chinese servants. They would doubtless be greatly benefited by the change. The Herald has a lengthy leader on the subject from which we make the following extracts:

THE MISTAKE OF SAN FRANCISCO—OPENING FOR A CHINESE CITY ON THE PACIFIC.

There is one dark blot upon the fair escutcheon of California, a narrow and bigoted policy among her people on one point, which, in view of their general broad intelligence and a large grasp of mind, we are surprised as well as pained to see. The Golden Gate, as the representative city of our Pacific empire, has in general, exhibited a liberal policy and an enterprising spirit in grasping the early indications of coming greatness, which has been adequate to its mission and its portentous future. But in the one great duty which falls upon it as the pioneer in the movement of the mingling of the nations in the Western world it has been wanting in comprehension of the future, in catholicity of feeling and in a proper appreciation of its own vast interests. The persecution which the intelligent portion of the community have permitted to be exercised toward the incoming millions from China and Japan is a wrong which, if not remedied at an early day, will be equal to turning the imperial position of the Queen of the Pacific into the lap of some more wise and just community.

The advent of millions of industrious, frugal, intelligent and docile laborers from the teeming populations of China and Japan to our Pacific and Central regions is the coming event of the close of the nineteenth century. With its development we are to enter upon an era of production, trade and material and intellectual development such as has never before been witnessed by the world, and beside which the past growth of our own interests, now looked upon as so vast, will shrink into pigmy proportions. The great experiment of the mingling of nations under free institutions, and with the largest liberty for the labor and mind of man, is to be developed upon our Pacific slope, and its swelling waves will speedily overrun the plains of our Central and Southern regions. The Pacific Railroads will be but a rill for the sweep of its broad waters. Lying as it does at the very threshold of this mighty movement, the city of San Francisco can if it chooses, guide the incoming tide and rise to greatness upon it.

PROHIBITION IN MASSACHUSETTS.—Now that the people of Massachusetts have again determined to test the prohibitory liquor law, it is to be hoped they will give it a fair trial which it has never yet had. It is impossible to decide upon the merits or demerits of such a law until it has been fully enforced. Hitherto the law has been nothing but a name. Everybody that wanted it was able to procure liquor at any time, and the only result of the law was to stimulate the ingenuity of the liquor dealers. Grant's maxim, that the best way to get rid of a bad law is to enforce it stoutly, should be observed in Massachusetts, and then, if the law is bad, it will soon be repealed—if it is beneficial, its advantages will speedily become apparent.

OREGON.

The effort to organize an agricultural society in Douglas county has proved a failure. Bad for Douglas.

The wife of James Yantis of Linn county died very suddenly a few days ago while engaged in her household duties.

It is stated that Upton's paper at Corvallis will be called the Mercury. We had supposed from some remarks made by the Gazette, that it would be called the Iron Age.

The Albany Democrat thinks a line of steam boats should be built to run on the upper Wallamet and connect with the east side railroad at Rock Island. A company has been incorporated in Benton county on this plan.

That enlightened paper at Eugene, the Guard, has a column article on "that infamous and hellish body of corruption and iniquity, called Congress." The Guard evidently thinks that it is still fighting under the banner of A. Johnson for "my policy."

From the Roseburg paper: Intelligence has reached this place that Byron Rose, formerly of this county, was killed in a logging camp near Coos Bay, last week. It appears that a stag was thrown by a log which was being moved, striking the unfortunate man on the head, fracturing his skull and causing death almost instantly. Mr. Rose was a young man who was well and favorably known in this community, and his death will be mourned by a large circle of relations and friends.

GENERAL NEWS ITEMS.

The London Times says Americans are unanimous in determining to pay their national debt, while the English neither know nor care about theirs, or even speak about paying it.

The Monterey Democrat reports whales in large numbers in the Bay of Monterey. Seven were bagged in one week by the whalers in that place. Mackerel have also made their appearance, after an absence of many years.

The canary bird has been an object of traffic for five centuries. 500 years ago there was but one kind of canary bird, but the original stock has been so mixed and adulterated, that the varieties now number at least fifty.

During the week ending July 3d, there were one hundred deaths in Chicago, of which eighteen were from scarlet fever. The same week there were eighty deaths in San Francisco. Chicago has 300,000, San Francisco 150,000 inhabitants.

The New York Sun files this amusing caveat: "We desire all persons to take notice that the Sun is the first paper to bring out Schuyler Colfax for the Presidency. We set up this claim early, so that it will not be contested hereafter, when it will be a matter of consequence."

A communication from Cracow states that the remains of Casimir the Great, the last of the Piast dynasty, which reigned in Poland in the fourteenth century, have just been discovered in a vault in that city. A crown and sceptre in excellent preservation were found in the tomb.

THE WEST.

A new Democratic paper called the Capital Chronicle has arisen at Boise City out of ashes of the expired Democrat.

In addition to the 55 tons of butter brought to to California last week by rail, the steamer Alaska which sailed from New York on the 10th, had on board about 75 tons more for California.

A girl named Clara Traverse, fifteen years old, committed suicide at Marysville (Cal.) a few days ago. She was a timid girl who had been turned out upon the world by a step-father, and sick and destitute, she sought the final rest of the grave.

The San Jose Mercury says of one of the Democratic candidates for Supreme Judge in California: The fact that Gen. Wallace was once a prominent Know Nothing, and took a solemn oath "never to vote for a foreigner for any office in the gift of the people, and especially if he be a Catholic," will, of course, entitle him to the suffrages of all Irish Democrats for the office of Justice of the Supreme Court.

Making Treason Odious.

[From the Washington Star, July 3.]

The monotonous commonplace of the [illegible] and State papers of Andrew Johnson have been relieved by one phrase of Websterian force and ring [illegible] about "punishing traitors and making treason odious." The sentiment may be said to have been the salvation of Johnson at a time when he had sunk pretty low in public estimation. But it has always seemed odd how such a ringing epigramatic sentence should have come from the mint of sloppy, diffusive Johnsonian utterance. The mystery is, however, explained to us in this wise by one well aware of the facts.

On the night of the surrander of Lee, Gen. Mussey, formerly Private Secretary to President Lincoln, was at the Union League Rooms, Philadelphia, in company with Mr. Robeson, present Secretary of the Navy, and others, and the question came up as to the course likely to be pursued by President Lincoln toward the rebel States. The fear was expressed by some that advantage would be taken of the good nature of Mr. Lincoln by some of the shrewd rebel political leaders to obtain concessions that would compromise the Republican party. The inquiry was made in the same connection, how far Vice-President Johnson could be counted on in aiding to carry out a firm Republican line of policy toward the South. General Mussey gave the opinion that he could be depended upon as a Radical Republican. In the course of this conversation Mr. Robeson advocated the adoption of a firm, decided policy in regard to the ex-rebels, and said he was in favor of "punishing traitors and making treason odious." General Mussey, on his return to Washington related this conversation to Mr. Johnson, using the language of Mr. Robeson. The words above quoted seemed to tickle Johnson's ear, and he turned quickly around, saying: "What was that, General? Will you please repeat that?" General Mussey repeated the words, and presently Mr. Johnson asked their re-repetition, and finally begged General Mussey to write them down, which he did. Shortly after that, on the occasion of Johnson's next public utterance, he made use of the now famous phrase as his own, and from that day to this has made much of it as his own special thunder.

DON'T LIKE ROSY.—The San Francisco Dispatch, a Democratic paper, don't like the nomination of Rosecrans for Governor by its party in Ohio. And in this connection it revives the following recollection of Rosy:

We have a lively recollection of a little game played by the General in this State two years ago. He came to San Francisco from Arizona, a short time before the assembling of the State Convention, and it was publicly and generally believed that he was a candidate and desired the nomination for Governor. About the time the Convention was to assemble a change came over him it seems,—why, we know not—and he hid himself down in San Mateo county, at the residence of Mr. Hayward. When the delegates began to arrive it was found that many influential Democrats favored Rosecrans' nomination, and a self appointed committee of his friends, having learned his whereabouts, called on him to know if he would accept the nomination. To their surprise and mortification, he declined. A few day after he attended a Radical meeting, and pledged himself to support Gorham, a man of such questionable antecedents and character that thousands of the better class of his own party rebelled against his nomination and helped to defeat him. We hope Rosy will not play our Ohio friends a similar trick.

VERY FRUITFUL.—Chief Justice Chase, in addressing the Sunday School of the M. E. Church, Charleston, a few weeks ago, said that the individual colored man had more responsibility than the white man, had more need of caution, and of patience, because errors in him were charged against his race. If the white man embraced the wrong he was adjudged by society simply as a citizen; by his own merits or demerits he stood or fell, with no thought given to his race, but if a colored man departed from the paths of rectitude or of wisdom, society charged the fault upon his people.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO JULY 18.

Washington News.

CHICAGO, July 19.—Washington specials say that an agreement has been made by which the French Cable will be put in operation, the agent pledging the company to abide by any conditions imposed by Congress to prevent monopoly of privileges and rights. This is all Governments asks, and if such pledge be given the Government will not object to the landing and operating of the cable.

Senator Williams left last night for home.

Mr. Walters, of the Boston Advertiser, just returned from California, says both the Pacific roads, with the exception of about 100 miles, are as smooth and true as the track from Boston to Worcester.

Virginia Affairs.

RICHMOND, July 19.—Gen. Canby has sent circulars to all the members of the Legislature, asking if they can qualify by subscribing to the iron clad oath. If, as is apprehended, a quorum of both houses can be thus qualified, he will issue a proclamation in about fifteen days, announcing the result of the election and calling the Legislature together to ratify the Fifteenth Amendment and elect U. S. Senators. The members unable to qualify in this case will remain absent until the Constitution has been ratified by Congress and the State admitted, when they would present themselves and qualify under the State Constitution, from which the test oath has been expunged. Should it, however, be found that a quorum is unable to qualify by taking the test oath, the commanding General will then defer issuing the proclamation, but will order new elections to fill the seats which will be declared vacant by reason of disability.

New York News.

NEW YORK, July 19.—August Belmont & Co. refused last Saturday to obey the order of Judge McCann directing them to place the Fenian funds of twenty thousand dollars in the hands of a receiver appointed by the Court. Judge McCann, upon learning this fact, ordered them to appear before him on Tuesday next and show cause why they should not be punished for contempt.

During the chase on Gardiner Island, Col. Ryan was fired upon several times but escaped unhurt. He was in a place of concealment from which he can't be dislodged except by artillery. It is impossible for those not in the secret to reach him without risking their lives. He has about seventy men with him.

Chicago Dispatch.

CHICAGO, July 18.—A row occurred yesterday in a beer garden on the north side. Thirty or forty roughs having visited the place for the purpose of making a disturbance. Reports from Long Island, N. Y., represent that the storm on Friday was one of the severest of the season. Two men were killed by lightning, and several houses blown down. The crops were severely damaged.

A crowd of N. Y. roughs have gone to Rockaway, to day, to destroy the house of Mott, accused of killing Owen, the Catholic Priest. Notices were posted round town warning the boarders to leave the house by noon. The hotel was deserted by the boarders and servants and there was a great excitement in town. The Sheriff and strong posse occupy the house. Trouble was expected Sunday night. The priest yesterday advised the the congregation to obey the law and not interfere with Mott.

The French Cable.

SYDNEY, Cape Breton, July 18.—The French cable fleet, engaged in completing the laying of the ocean line, experienced a heavy gale of wind accompanied by thunder and lightning, on Friday evening. The Wm. Corry, which had finished laying her portion of the wire found it too strong to attempt the work of transferring it and remaining aboard to the Scanderi, the ship freighted with the main portion, the men therefore buoyed it at sea, after which the entire squadron put into Mira Bay, Cape Breton. This movement was absolutely necessary for the purpose of repairing the slight damage which occurred to the paying-out machinery aboard the Chilleru, which was occasioned by a partial collision between that vessel and another.
